PLAINVIEW WELCOMES RIDGEWOOD SAVINGS BANK BRANCH TO THE “#NEIGHBORGOOD”

[Ridgewood, N.Y. – January 23, 2018] Ridgewood Savings Bank, New York’s largest mutual savings bank, opened its newest branch on January 10th at 1125 Old Country Road in Plainview, NY. The Grand Opening ribbon cutting ceremony was held at 10:30 am on January 23rd at this new location.

“We are very proud to bring our own very special brand of banking to the Plainview community,” said Leonard Stekol, Ridgewood Savings Bank’s Chairman, President and CEO. “While banks within our marketplace continue to consolidate and change to a greater commercial bank model, Ridgewood remains focused on our commitment to offer the products and services that are important to both the residents and small businesses of the communities we serve,” continued Mr. Stekol. “Plainview is a family community where neighborhood values and financial security are high priorities. We plan to deliver the highest level of financial excellence, while remaining connected with the community groups and foundations that make the Plainview community thrive.”

The manager of the Plainview branch is Brian Bernstein. Brian, a resident of Long Island, has 21 years of banking experience as a member of the Ridgewood family. “I enjoy reaching out to community leaders and groups, staying involved in their efforts and understanding their needs” Mr. Bernstein commented. “It’s the hallmark of this bank.” The Assistant Branch Manager is Valerie Kancler who has been with Ridgewood Savings Bank for 15 years.

The Plainview branch will feature special Grand Opening products from January 16th through March 31st. This includes exclusive offers such as a Super Savings account² yielding 1.25% APY*, a new account Checking offer¹ valued up to $300, and several very competitive CD products.

You can follow the grand opening on social media (FB: RidgewoodBank) by searching and posting to #NEIGHBORGOOD.
